

Licensing Agreement

This Agreement should be read before typing the supplied release number into the program; typing in the release number indicates acceptance of this Agreement.

Licensee owns any physical media on which the software is recorded, but MathArt, LLC retains title, ownership and copyright of the Software as supplied at the time of purchase, and all subsequent copies, and have on site inspection rights in matters concerning the Software.

Definitions

In the following Licensing Agreement,

- 'the software' means all copies or upgrades of the computer program PointPlots®, a software package owned by The Licensor and its accompanying documentation held within the site;*
- the 'Licensor' means MathArt, LLC;*
- the 'Licensee' means the person or institution that has purchased an individual or site license to use the software;*
- the 'Site' means the physical environment (such as a school or college) controlled by a 'Site License' Licensee;*
- 'the 'User' and 'Users' refers to individual(s) who actually operate and use the software. If the Licensee is an institution, then the Users must belong to that institution and are not permitted to access or use The Software outside the premises of the institution.*

The License

- a) The following Licensing Agreement applies to this product. The Licensor hereby grants to the Licensee the non-exclusive license to use the software on the terms and conditions set out below.*
- b) Licensee acknowledges the intent of PointPlots® is to enhance the teaching and learning of elementary mathematics and that PointPlots® should not be used for serious research or critical computation.*
- c) Individual license:
 - c.1) Licensee agrees that his or her purchased version of PointPlots® is for personal use only (at home or work; you may make a copy for transfer) on a computer that you own or control.*
 - c.2) Licensee agrees that use by any other person(s) or on any other device(s) is prohibited.*
- d) Site License:
 - d.1) at the time of purchase the number of permitted simultaneous Users will have been established and recorded - the introductory 'splash screen' states the type of License and/or the number of computer users allowed per site. This information is an integral part of this License.*
 - d.2) Site License users agree that their use of PointPlots® is strictly prohibited outside the site of the Site Licensed purchase.*
- e) Licensee agrees to make no attempt to reverse engineer, codebreak, modify, merge, or translate the Software.*
- f) Licensee agrees not to include or merge the Software with other software, nor to distribute, lend, hire, sell or in any manner profit from PointPlots® without the expressed written consent of Licensor (except as noted in the next statement).*
- g) Licensee is, however, permitted to use screenshot images taken from PointPlots®* for purposes that enhance the teaching and learning of mathematics (credit is appreciated, but not mandatory).

- h) Licensor shall not be held liable for any issues arising from the sale, installation, use, or promotion of PointPlots®.*
- i) Licensee agrees to refer other interested parties to www.PointPlots.com for purchase of their own copies of PointPlots®. The surprisingly low cost of PointPlots® is intended to discourage the unethical circumvention of the intellectual property rights, sweat equity, monetary investment, and spirit of Licensor.*
- j) Licensor urges Licensees to keep current their e-mail addresses with Licensor (cf., www.PointPlots.com) for purposes of being notified of updates, upgrades, or other information regarding PointPlots®.*
- k) Licensor will never reveal, sell, or in any manner provide or transfer any Licensee information—including name, address, e-mail address, credit card information, technical information, etc. to any third party interests: individuals, organizations, services, etc.*
